

BRAKE PAD PARTNERSHIP
Annual Stakeholder Conference
Monday, September 9, 2002

Cypress Room
Tressider Memorial Union
Stanford University
8:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

PRELIMINARY DRAFT AGENDA***

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

- ❖ Engage in dialogue with stakeholders and obtain input and direction regarding the Brake Pad Partnership Steering Committee's progress and plans for future work.
- ❖ Provide information on brake pad manufacturers' use of copper in model year 2001 brake pad products.
- ❖ Share information on brake pad manufacturers' other efforts to address the issue of copper in brake pad wear debris.

PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION TOPICS***

- Update on Progress and Future Directions for the Brake Pad Partnership.
- The Proposed Approach for Assessing the Fate and Transport of Wear Debris in the Environment, including in-depth discussion of each element of the proposed technical analyses.
- The Basin Plan Amendment and the Brake Pad Partnership.
- Nisshinbo Automotive Corporation's Development of Raw Materials for Brake Pads.
- Report on the Brake Manufacturers Council's Product Environmental Committee's Copper Use Monitoring Program: Results for Model Year 2001.
- Report on Disc Brake Wear Debris Characterization Efforts and Identification of Future Characterization Needs.

---

* Each of the presentations will be followed by a lengthy question and answer discussion session. Please also note that the order of the presentations may change.