

Editorial Board Meeting Update
As of: 4/20/98

Newspaper

Result

Questions/Proposed Actions/
Notes

Vallejo Times Herald

Ed. Board meeting scheduled 3/30/98

Attended by Don Birrer, Geoff Brosseau, and Dan Tafolla No editorial yet 4/14

Marin Independent Journal

doesn't conduct ed.
board meetings, but will accept and run an op-ed

Gina Purin to write piece by 4/20.

San Jose Mercury News

swamped with election meetings but feels this is an important topic; will run something if we send info.
Info sent 3/31/98

Editor Phil Yost said he will try to run the info.

Vacaville Reporter

thought the issue was an important but straightforward one, so they requested materials to write their own piece; Backgrounder and At-A-Glance were faxed along with Larry Bahr's name, 4/7/98.

Editorial and cartoon ran 4/9/98

Contra Costa Times

interested in subject but swamped with election mtgs.
right now; will schedule a mtg.
for early May

Call back 4/24 to schedule

Daily Republic (Fairfield)

ed. board meets only on a very limited basis and likes keep that restricted to politicians and candidates

No editorial possible.

Alameda Newspaper Group

thought it was an interesting subject, but swamped with election meetings now; call back mid-May to schedule meeting

Will call mid-May to schedule